FRANKFORT, IN [April 15, 2025] – The City of Frankfort is pleased to announce the appointment of Brian Killman as the new Superintendent of the Frankfort Street Department. During last night's Board of Public Works meeting, Mayor Judy Sheets officially swore Brian Killman into his new role.

Brian brings a wealth of experience and a deep understanding of the department's operations to this leadership position. He served within the Frankfort Street Department for over 10 years, during which time he acquired invaluable knowledge of the city's infrastructure and a clear vision for its future.

"Brian's dedication to the Street Department and the City of Frankfort is evident in his years of service," said Mayor Sheets. "He possesses the experience and innovative thinking necessary to lead the department forward. We are confident in his ability to continue advancing our infrastructure through strategic planning and the pursuit of grant opportunities."

In his new role, Superintendent Killman will oversee the maintenance and improvement of Frankfort's streets, sanitation, and other public infrastructure. He is committed to building upon the department's successes and proactively seeking grants to fund critical projects that will benefit the entire community.

"I am honored and excited to take on this new challenge," said Killman. "Having worked within the Street Department for over 10 years, I am passionate about our work and its impact on our city. I look forward to collaborating with the dedicated team here and working with Mayor Sheets and the city administration to implement new ideas and secure the resources needed to enhance our infrastructure for the future."

The City of Frankfort welcomes Brian Killman to his new role and looks forward to his leadership in developing and maintaining a safe and efficient infrastructure for all residents.
