FRANKFORT, IN [May 14, 2025] – During the Board of Public & Safety meeting, the City of Frankfort Fire Department announced the retirement of Lieutenant Greg Miller, a dedicated public servant who has committed nearly 40 years of his life to protecting the citizens of Frankfort.

Lieutenant Miller began his distinguished firefighter career with the Frankfort Fire Department and has served in various capacities. He has demonstrated unwavering commitment, leadership, and a deep passion for the safety and well-being of the community. His experience and knowledge have been invaluable to the department and the countless individuals he has served.

"Lieutenant Miller's dedication to the Frankfort Fire Department and the citizens of Frankfort is truly remarkable," said Fire Chief Matt Stidham. "I am delighted to congratulate Miller on his outstanding career. We acknowledge his remarkable leadership, enduring friendship, and tireless efforts to educate and inspire others. We offer our sincerest wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement, knowing that he will remain an integral part of the City of Frankfort."

Throughout his career, Lieutenant Miller has been a constant presence, responding to countless emergencies and working tirelessly to ensure the safety of Frankfort residents. His colleagues remember him for his calm demeanor under pressure, extensive knowledge of firefighting and emergency medical services, and willingness to always go the extra mile.

Mayor Judy Sheets echoed Chief Stidham's sentiments: "Greg Miller embodies the spirit of public service. His nearly four decades with the Frankfort Fire Department speak volumes about his dedication to our community's safety. While we will miss his daily presence at the firehouse, we are fortunate that he will continue serving the City as a Board of Public Works and Safety member. We thank him for his exceptional service and wish him all the best in his retirement."

While retiring from active duty, Lieutenant Miller will continue contributing to the City of Frankfort as a dedicated member of the Board of Public Works and Safety. This ongoing commitment underscores his deep-rooted desire to serve the community he has called home for so many years.
