

Veterans Day Message 2023

On this Veterans Day, I am reminded that we are “the land of the free and home of the braves” (quoted from the Star-Spangled Banner) as we pay tribute and honor to all of our Veterans near and far.

I ask you today, as your Mayor of Frankfort and as your fellow American, that we continue to count our blessings that we have brave men and women who answer the call of duty to defend our county and our freedoms every day. Please keep our Veterans in your daily prayers. It is because of their sacrifice that we are here today.

My hope is that all of us will continue to be mindful and grateful daily for the courage and sacrifices made by the men and women of our armed forces. On this day and every day, I encourage all of us to show our veterans our gratitude.

As I close, I will leave you with this quote from our former President, Herbert Hoover, “Here men endured that a nation might live.”

God Bless,

Judith E. Sheets
