

Frankfort Parks

This is the 30th Anniversary of the Festival of Lights held in our beautiful T.P.A. Park!

T.P.A. Park is an 89-acre park in the Heart of Frankfort, Indiana. We have a spectacular one way route, wide and tall enough to bring your bus right on through this year. Come on out to see our free standing light displays and the tunnels of lights. The Festival of Lights is in the Top 10 Light Displays in the state of Indiana, can you believe that. What an amazing honor to be among some of the most amazing Light Displays in our state.

After Saturday, December 3rd, Santa Claus will be at our Santa House handing out Candy Canes, until he makes his way back to the North Pole on Christmas Eve.

You can purchase a delicious bowl of hot soup at our concession stand and a bag of delicious homemade Kettle Corn! Travelin' Tom's Coffee Truck will make many appearances on the weekends selling their delicious coffee drinks too.

The Festival of Lights begins on November 24th and runs until January 2nd! There is no admission to the Festival of Lights.

Bring your whole family on out for a great Holiday Night in the Park!

We cannot wait to see you, you won't want to miss out on this spectacular event!
