Frankfort, IN – The City of Frankfort invites residents to attend the annual State of the City Address, where Mayor Judy Sheets will highlight the city's accomplishments in 2023 and outline plans for the future.

Date: Monday, April 1, 2024

Time: 5:30pm

Location: Frankfort Community Public Library – Skanta Theatre
208 West Clinton Street, Frankfort IN 46041

The State of the City Address will provide an opportunity for residents to learn about:

- ◆ Key achievements and milestones reached in 2023
- ◆ Ongoing and upcoming projects and initiatives
- ◆ The Mayor's vision for Frankfort's future

"I am excited to share the progress we have made together as a community and to unveil our plans for the future," said Mayor Judy Sheets. "The State of the City Address is an important opportunity for me to connect and engage with residents about the issues that matter most to them."

Residents are encouraged to attend the State of the City Address and learn more about the City of Frankfort's future. If residents are unable to join in person, The City of Frankfort encourages them to tune into Hoosierland TV or the City of Frankfort's YouTube Channel - <https://www.youtube.com/@CityofFrankfortIN/streams>
