As fireworks light up the sky on this Independence Day, my heart brims with appreciation for the brave souls who paved the way for our freedoms. Their sacrifices, both past and present, echo through the ages, a symphony of courage that allows us to celebrate today.

From the heroes of our nation's history to the guardians in our own community, the men and women of Frankfort who serve a deep thank you will never be enough. Wherever you are raise your sparkler this July 4th, take a moment to remember the beating hearts behind our freedom.
