FRANKFORT, IN – Mayor Judy Sheets of the City of Frankfort is thrilled to announce a special event, "Sparkling Success: Women's Leadership Series," celebrating the remarkable achievements of women-owned small businesses in Frankfort and Clinton County. Hosted by Mayor Judy Sheets, this inspiring gathering will feature a keynote address from Indiana's First Lady, Maureen Braun, a passionate advocate for community development and entrepreneurship.

Join us on Wednesday, April 23rd, from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM at the Frankfort Neighborhood Center (259 S 3rd Street, Frankfort) for an afternoon of empowerment, networking, and celebration. Doors open at 11:00 AM for photos and pre-event networking. First Lady Maureen Braun, owner of Finishing Touches and the first president of Heart of Jasper, will share her insights and experiences on leadership and the vital role women play in driving economic growth within our communities. Her journey and dedication to fostering vibrant local businesses will undoubtedly inspire attendees.

"We are incredibly honored to welcome First Lady Maureen Braun to Frankfort," says Mayor Judy Sheets. "This event is a fantastic opportunity to recognize the hard work and dedication of our local women entrepreneurs and to learn from a leader who has made a significant impact across Indiana. This is the first of other similar events to come from my office, as we have so much to learn from female leaders throughout our state and region. We invite everyone to join us in celebrating their 'Sparkling Success!'"

This event is a unique chance to connect with fellow community members, support local businesses, and gain valuable insights from a distinguished leader. The cost to attend is $25 per person, payable by check, cash, or Venmo.

Please RSVP to the Mayor's Office by April 17th at 765.654.7332 to secure your spot. Don't miss this opportunity to participate in a powerful celebration of women's leadership in Frankfort and Clinton County. We look forward to seeing you there!
